Market News

NEW YORK, Feb. 10-Business on the stock exchange today was again sluggish and irregular. The only con-structive feature was furnished by metal issues, that group displaying vible improvements as a result of the formation of a banking syndicate to market huge stores of copper abroad. On the other hand, rails were subjected to renewed pressure following the announcement that the railroad labor board had rejected the applica-tion of the railroads for abrogation of the national agreement. Yet another adverse development was
